Acachuen

Acachuen is one of eleven towns in a region to the North called "The Eleven Towns." It lies between two other towns where we have outreach works, Ichan and Tzopoco. When we first came to Michoacán, there was no work of the Manifestors in Acachuen. But within a few years, Jorge Serrano was making strides in the faith, and we were thankful to attend his ordination service. Jorge lives in Acachuen, where his home serves triple-duty, also serving as his metal-working shop, and the place for worship and Christian education.

Since then, it has been encouraging to see Jorge's progress from year to year. Besides serving the mission church in his own town, he also lends his support to the works in Ichan and Paracho. He is usually involved in our various conferences, seminars, and worship services whenever we are visiting in Michoacán.

A Special Prayer Request

We just learned that Jorge was recently involved in an accident that resulted in some serious spinal damage. Misael Custodio informs us:

"Since then he hasn't been able to walk and he has too much pain even to sit or to stand up. He was recommended bed-rest, and the doctor said the only real solution is to have surgery. For now he is taking some medicine, but he and his family have to decide what is going to be the next step. The surgery costs a lot of money. We have been praying for him; please pray for him also.”

Jorge sits in his workshop, which is also used as the meeting place for the mission church there in Acachuen

We do not have many details of his condition, but we know enough to ask for your prayers for him and his family. Pray that the Lord will be pleased to heal him, and strengthen him to be able to continue his work in the Lord’s Kingdom among the Tarascans. Pray for the Lord’s comfort, that He would enfold his family in His arms of love. Pray that the Lord will intercede to meet his financial needs, and pray for their wisdom during this difficult time.

Elder Jorge Serrano prepares the table for administering the Lord’s Supper in Paracho

Thank you for your prayers for our work among the Tarascans. We would ask that you continue to lift up the ministry of the Manifestors, as well as that of the seminary. Pray that the Lord would soften the hearts of many people in these villages, and in the city, giving them a deep hunger and thirst for His true Gospel. And pray for us as we continue to minister there.

The Higgins’ Herald is published as often as we can get to it. The opinions expressed herein are those of the Editor-in-chief, and/or its Editorial staff, unless we didn’t really mean to put it just that way. For any blessing you may receive from this publication, we give all glory to our Lord. For any blame, it lies with me. sic biscuitus disintegrat, cum grano salis.
